WILLIAMS FOR COMMISSIONER

Fort Worth Man Likely to be Appointed.
Was Storey's Opponent in 1906. His Record.

Special to the Eagle.
Austin, Texas, April 16.—Nothing definite has yet been given out regarding the appointments of the state railroad commissioner, but the later report is W. D. Williams of Fort Worth is likely to be selected.

Judge Williams was for a number of years city attorney of Fort Worth. He was a member of the Twenty-ninth legislature from Tarrant county and was author of the intangible assets tax bill. He was a candidate for railroad commissioner against Judge L. J. Storey in 1906, but was defeated. He has just been elected mayor of Fort Worth and is at the head of the commission form of government there. He has been a strong friend of the union labor force of Texas.

WATERS-PIERCE MANDATE RECEIVED

Big Fine Will be Paid Next Week. Attorney
General Will Place It in State Treasury.

Special to the Eagle.
Austin, Texas, April 16.—The mandate of the federal supreme court, ending the Waters Pierce litigation in favor of the state was received here this morning. It goes first to the state appellate court and thence to the district court of Travis county.

It is authoritatively announced that the officials of the defeated corporation will pay the fine of nearly two million dollars as soon as the papers are arranged.

The fine money will be paid to Attorney General Davidson, who will place it in the state treasury. Attorney Perkins for the Waters Pierce company says the payment will be made next week.

No provision has yet been made for the use of the money.

Lightfoot Superintending.
Assistant Attorney General Lightfoot will file the mandate of the federal supreme court in the Waters Pierce
